MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

Dear Indiana State Fair Exhibitor,

Thank you for your participation in the great Indiana State Fair. Not only are you taking part in one of the premiere agricultural fairs in North America, but you are also participating in one of the most historically significant years in Indiana State Fair history.

This is the 150th Indiana State Fair – a milestone only five other fairs can match – and many special events will take place to mark the occasion. I hope you enjoy the novelty of this unique celebration, but also remember that it's the exhibits and competitions that are at the heart of our fair and people like you that make Indiana a leader in the fair industry.

For all of us on the State Fair Board, I want to extend our sincere gratitude for your willingness to make the State Fair part of your summer plans. I wish you the best of luck in competition and hope the Fair provides as many great memories for you and your family as it has for me and my family.

Sincerely,

Purpose of Form

A person who is required to file an information return with the IRS, must obtain your correct taxpayer identification number (TIN) to report, for example, income paid to you, real estate transactions, mortgage interest you paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, or contributions you made to an IRA.

U.S. person. Use Form W-9 only if you are a U.S. person (including a resident alien), to provide your correct TIN to the person requesting it (the requester) and, when applicable, to:

1. Certify that the TIN you are giving is correct (or you are waiting for a number to be issued),
2. Certify that you are not subject to backup withholding, or
3. Claim exemption from backup withholding if you are a U.S. exempt payee.

In 3 above, if applicable, you are also certifying that as a U.S. person, your allocable share of any partnership income from a U.S. trade or business is not subject to the withholding tax on foreign partners' share of effectively connected income.

Note. If a requester gives you a form other than Form W-9 to request your TIN, you must use the requester's form if it is substantially similar to this Form W-9.

For federal tax purposes, you are considered a person if you are:

Special rules for partnerships. Partnerships that conduct a trade or business in the United States are generally required to pay a withholding tax on any foreign partners' share of income from such business. Further, in certain cases where a Form W-9 has not been received, a partnership is required to presume that a partner is a foreign person, and pay the withholding tax. Therefore, if you are a U.S. person that is a partner in a partnership conducting a trade or business in the United States, provide Form W-9 to the partnership to establish your U.S. status and avoid withholding on your share of partnership income.

The person who gives Form W-9 to the partnership for purposes of establishing its U.S. status and avoiding withholding on its allocable share of net income from the partnership conducting a trade or business in the United States is in the following cases:

- The U.S. owner of a disregarded entity and not the entity,
